

- 1 Mexico Direct From Belfast: Fly direct from Belfast International to the beach resort of Cancun in Mexico in 2017. There are four fortnightly departures beginning on 26 June 2017 with prices leading in at £1686 pp for a 4* All-Inclusive. Flights are direct and take approx 9 hours.
- 2 Royal Caribbean launch the biggest cruise ship in the world. Harmony of the Seas took to the waters in May 2016 and is officially the largest passenger carrying cruise ship in the world holding 6,660 people. In its inaugural season it will be based in Barcelona and sail a 7 night Western Med itinerary with August prices still available from £1150 pp.
- 3 P&O feature a direct flight from Belfast on 3 February 2018 to meet up with its flag ship Britannia. The flight ties in with a 14 night Caribbean cruise with prices beginning at £1719 pp.
- 4 5* Abu Dhabi Breaks: Fly direct from Dublin in October for a 4 night stay in the 5* Millennium hotel for an incredible £569 pp b/b.
- 5 Fred Olsen has a new reduced fare on their 12 night sailing from Belfast on 1st August. Taking in rivers of Europe, an inside cabin leads in at £899pp.
- 6 Winter Short Breaks now on sale: Terra Travel short breaks for winter '16/'17 are now on sale. Fly to the likes of Berlin/Krakow/Iceland/Gdansk from Belfast with 4 night break as from £169pp. Dublin still offers destinations such as Rome/Budapest/Prague/Madrid with 3 night prices as low as £149pp.